GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Albany City Election

ALBANY, N. Y., April 10—Michael N. N[illegible], Dem., was elected mayor by a plurality of over 1,000. The workingmen's candidate ran nearly as high as the Republican candidate.

Loved too Much

[illegible], Me., April 9—Frederick Sav[illegible], a Frenchman, to day murdered Rose [illegible] of Methune, Mass by throwing her into the river. When arrested his explanation was, "O, I loved her too much" He is married and has children

Sherman and Resumption.

NEW YORK, April 10—Secretary Sherman made a visit to-day to the First National Bank, where he discussed the condition of the bond market, with especial reference to the 4 per cents. He said he would be able to resume specie payments at the date fixed by law and he expressed a desire that the banks of the principal cities should aid him in every reasonable way. A conference was held with a few presidents of leading national banks of the city in the Bank of Commerce. Secrecy was enjoined upon all who were present. Secretary Sherman declined to impart any information, saying that no conclusion had been reached, and that when something of a definite character was accomplished he would make known the result.

NEW YORK, April 10.—Secretary Sherman made the sub-treasury office his headquarters to-day, where he was called upon by financial men. He had no formal conference with the representatives of the national banks and banking firms. The secretary, said a leading banker to-day, came here for the purpose of getting aid from the banks in the resumption of specie payment, and not to be dictated to as to his precise plans. He said to officers of national banks that he required $140,000,000 in gold to resume specie payments on January 1st, that he had on hand about $90,000,000, and desired the banks, if they were willing to assist him, to subscribe for $50,000,000 in bonds, which would make up the full amount. He also expressed his willingness to dispose of a hundred million 4 per cent bonds at par with a commission of a quarter per cent. After general discussion which was not favorable to the proposition in regard to the four per cent bonds, Secretary Sherman made an offer to dispose of fifty million 4½ per cents and requested the banks and bankers to submit a proposition to him for the full amount or any fractional part thereof. It is understood that the national bank presidents held another meeting last Tuesday night to consider the proposition of Secretary Sherman. His suggestion that the banks should subscribe to the four per cents was voted down.

The Financial Conference.

NEW YORK, April 10.—In regard to Secretary Sherman's conference with the bankers at the sub-treasury to-day no definite information could be obtained. It was rumored that the bankers had agreed to take a portion of the new 4 per cent loan on condition that the secretary would not remove the gold from the sub-treasury. Secretary Sherman, when asked about the matter, simply requested to be excused from being interviewed

A Bayard Taylor Dinner.

Whitelaw Reid, of the Tribune, gave a farewell dinner to Bayard Taylor this evening at the Lotos club, and to-morrow Mr Taylor leaves for Plymouth, whence he proceeds to Berlin via Paris.

The "Boss" in a Sad State.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Dr. Carnochan says Tweed has a complication of disorders likely to lead to a fatal termination. Others say it would be better to imprison him for life than to keep him oscillating between hope and despair.

Huge Defalcation.

FALL RIVER, Mass., April 10.—S. Angier Chase, treasurer of Union Mills, is said to be a defaulter for $400,000.

A Further Account.

FALL RIVER, Mass., April 10—Union mills have been attached by Henry T Pearse, president of the bank of Providence. Chase, treasurer, in a letter to the directors acknowledges $480,000 [illegible]. The paper of the Five Cent Savings Bank of this city of which Chase is treasurer is said to be secured, but they are requiring 60 days' notice from depositors.

[illegible] Says Women Musn't Preach

[illegible], April 10—Bishop Andrews of the New York Methodist conference, has decided that licensing of women as preachers is against the doctrines of Wesley. Disappointed advocates of the new departure have taken an appeal to the general conference of Methodists of the whole country in 1880

Sad Case of Drowning.

OMAHA, April 10.—Seven young men from [illegible], Iowa, went out hunting yesterday near Omaha. Three of them were drowned in the Missouri river by the upsetting of the boat. Their names were Charles R. Mershon, [illegible] Miller and J. K. Smith. Mershon leaves a wife and three children.

Discovery of Gold.

DEADWOOD, D. T., April 10—Considerable excitement is caused by an assay of $300 gold to the ton obtained from quartz which was taken from a mine in Whitewood gulch, a mile from Deadwood. This vicinity has heretofore been little prospected.

Death of Major Welch.

Major E. Welch, formerly post trader at Fort [illegible], died here yesterday.

Absconded with $70,000.

DENVER, Col., April 10—It is announced here that H. A. McIntyre, president of the First National Bank of Colorado Springs has absconded with $70,000. The first disclosures were made quite recently, showing that McIntyre had in the interim following the death of the late president of the Bank of Colorado Springs, and before the vacancy was supplied, withdrawn deposits of the bank between [illegible] and $41,000. In addition to this he has hypothecated stock of the two banks with which he was connected amounting to $25,000. It is feared the effect upon the Lake City bank will be irreparable

Cost of Ocean Transportation.

[From the New York Tribune]

Improvements in the capacity of steamships, and in the construction of their machinery, have diminished the cost of carrying cargoes to a greater extent than is commonly supposed. A comparison has been recently made between two Atlantic steamers, one of the year 1840, the other of to-day. The modern steamship carries fifteen times as much freight as the old one did, at nearly twice the speed; the consumption of coal per ton of cargo transported was in 1840 nearly eleven times as great as at present. The reduction in the price of freight and passage across the Atlantic is scarcely so great as the diminution of cost would seem to justify.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Diplomacy at Work—Pointed Answer of Prince Gortschakoff to Lord Salisbury's Circular

LONDON, April 10.—The Times has the full text of Gortschakoff's reply to Salisbury's circular. The dispatch [illegible] Salisbury's [illegible] He denies that the treaty of San Stefano creates a strong Bulgaria under control of Russia and declares that the arrangements relative to Bulgaria are only the [illegible] of a principle established by the Constantinople conference. He continues:

Lord Salisbury admits that a return to the programme of that conference pure and simple is rendered impossible by the war. The fact that the San Stefano treaty was preliminary indicates that Russia has left room for an ulterior understanding. Bulgaria will be under Russian control no more than Roumania, which also owes its existence to Russia. Russia is quite ready to abridge the term of occupation of Bulgaria as much as possible. The limits of Bulgaria have only been indicated in general terms in accordance with the nationality of the population. Details will be left to a mixed commission. The only object in assigning ports to Bulgaria is to assist her commercial development, by which England and the Mediterranean powers, whose commerce has always been a powerful lever for their political influence, are likely to profit far more than Russia. Gortschakoff expresses surprise at the objections to stipulations of the treaty relative to Thessaly and Epirus. By the modest reforms stipulated for it is intended to avoid the appearance of either establishing Russian supremacy on the one hand or utterly neglecting the Greeks on the other. Russia did not forbid the porte to consult the European powers as well as Russia on reforms for the Greek provinces. There is no longer any pretext for debarring Russia from the possession of Bessarabia, as the freedom of the Danube is secured by the international commission.

Gortschakoff's tone in regard to Armenia is much more energetic. He says:

Batoum is far from being equivalent to the pecuniary indemnity it represents. The Russian acquisitions in Armenia have only a defensive value. Russia wishes to hold them so as not to have to besiege them at the beginning of each war. These territorial cessions are the natural consequence of the war. If England wished to avert them she had only to join Russia in exercising a pressure on the porte which would probably have compelled it to grant the reforms without war. England having refused to do so, she has now no ground to question the right for which Russia had shed her blood, namely the right to establish a state of things which will henceforth render such sacrifices unnecessary or at least less onerous. The statement that Russia's annexation in Armenia will interfere with European trade with Persia conflicts with the statements previously made by British ministers. Such assertions push mistrust to an extreme. The complaints concerning indemnity are equally ill founded. The sum is out of all proportion to Russia's sacrifices. In deferment of payment of indemnity it is easier to see a design to keep the porte up to its engagement in the interest of all than a design to paralyze Turkey, but there is no remedy against suspicion.

The situation may be summed up thus: Existing treaties have been successively infringed by the porte in violating its obligations toward Christians and by the powers in interfering on behalf of the Christians. Salisbury himself recognizes that great changes are necessary in the treaties hitherto regulating the east. It remains for Lord Salisbury to say how he would reconcile these treaties and the recognized rights of Great Britain and other powers with the benevolent ends to which the united action of Europe has always been directed, and the attainment of that which one learns with pleasure is all the English government desires, namely good government, peace and liberty for the oppressed populations. It is equally for Salisbury to say how he could attain the desired end outside the preliminaries of San Stefano, and yet at the same time take due account of the rights Russia has acquired by the sacrifices she has borne alone. Salisbury's dispatch contains no reply to these questions. It seems the entire liberty of appreciation and action would have been more naturally found by formulating side by side with the objections contained in that dispatch some practical propositions of a nature to insure an understanding for a solution of the present difficulties.

What is Thought of the Russian Reply

LONDON, April 10.—A Times leading editorial says Prince Gortschakoff's reply shows a genuine desire to ensure a peaceable solution. A correspondent at Berlin says it appears that Austria and Germany recognize the European character of the Bessarabian question, without however taking any direct steps to influence Russian resolves.

Reports of War Preparations Unfounded

CHICAGO, April 10.—The Times' London correspondent visited Portsmouth yesterday and found the reports of great preparations there for war without foundation. No troop ships are taking on soldiers and there is but little more than the activity of ordinary times. Work is proceeding slowly on the Inflexible and repairs are in progress on two or three armored ships. There is no extra accumulation of troops or munitions of war. These facts in connection with the pacific tone of parliamentary speeches rather force the inference that much of the late clamor about preparation for war was a feint.

Preparing to Back Down.

NEW YORK, April 10.—A St Petersburg correspondent telegraphs that negotiations have been begun with England for the purpose of enabling both countries to back down from their present antagonistic position. It is suggested that Russia shall quit San Stefano and the English fleet retire from the Dardanelles, thus enabling each to show a desire for conciliation. We are not told whether the Russians propose to retire. They will certainly not leave Bulgaria until all matters relating to that portion of the disputed territory are settled to their entire satisfaction.

Italy Vigorously Neutral

ROME, April 10.—Count Corti, minister of foreign affairs, answering interpellations on the eastern question in the chamber of deputies to day, said Italy would observe a vigorous neutrality.

The Boss Pacificator.

ST PETERSBURG, April 10.—The Journal de St Petersburg says none can exercise pacific influence better than the Berlin cabinet, which inspires confidence at Vienna, London and St Petersburg. If the congress assembles for the discussion of new guarantees Russia will test them with a sincere wish to find them sufficient.

The Provinces Claim their Rights

BUCHAREST, April 10.—The report is confirmed that Prince Ghika has been authorized to inform Prince Gortschakoff that the Roumanian army would suffer itself to be crushed rather than to be disarmed. Prince Charles has notified the Russian consul to the same effect.

It is stated Russia is about to relinquish the clause of the treaty guaranteeing the passage of her army through Roumania and will send a delegate to treat directly with the Roumanian government on the subject.

Report Denied.

LONDON, April 10.—A special from Constantinople says it is untrue that the Russians have demanded Karakok and Buyukdere.

Steamers Chartered.

A Berlin special says in spite of denials four of the finest steamers of the Hamburg American packet line have been engaged by the British government.

Speeches that Point to War.

LONDON, April 10.—The Times says the speeches of Lords Beaconsfield and Salisbury are thought at Vienna to point to the probability of a war and to hold out small hope of the congress. This attitude of England is not approved at Vienna because the Austrian government made no provision for the event until the final failure of the congress project.

Still Demanding the Forts

LONDON, April 11.—A [illegible] Wednesday [illegible] Duke Nicholas continues [illegible] the forts [illegible] upper Bosphorus [illegible] day

Turkey Cannot Remain Neutral

A [illegible] letter [illegible] not be permitted to remain neutral [illegible] with England, Constantinople [illegible] European forces of [illegible] to [illegible] the Dardanelles will [illegible] in accordance with the treaty [illegible]

Movement of Russian Troops

VIENNA, April 11.—A dispatch [illegible] Russian troops [illegible] from Russia [illegible] order to occupy the line from Giurgevo to Bucharest. The Roumanian government [illegible] publicity [illegible] commenced, but nevertheless is an undoubted fact.

Growing More Critical

A special from Constantinople states that Layard has succeeded in paralyzing for the present Russia's endeavors to obtain the friendship of the Porte. In view of the hourly increasing tension of Anglo-Russian relations the greatest importance is attached to an interview Layard had on Monday with Raouf Pasha and Osman Pasha, who are paramount in military affairs.

Russia Satisfies Austria

A Vienna dispatch says Austria seems to consider Prince Gortschakoff's answer satisfactory and thinks England can exact no further assurance than is therein contained previous to a congress.

The War Cloud Thickens

A St Petersburg correspondent telegraphs as follows: The horizon is again overcast. The change is attributed to the speeches made in the British parliament, to consequent alteration in the attitude of the Austrian cabinet and the apparent hesitation of Germany to act as mediator.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate

WASHINGTON, April 10.

Voorhees offered a resolution directing the committee on pensions to report a bill granting pensions to soldiers of the war of 1812, their widows and orphans, and said he would call it up on the 30th instant.

Matthews offered an amendment to the bill to repeal the resumption act. Referred.

Matthews offered as a substitute for the bill to repeal the bankrupt act (his own bill), to establish a uniform law on the subject of bankruptcy.

After executive session the doors were reopened and the senate adjourned.

House.

O'Neill presented a remonstrance of a large number of merchants and manufacturers against the passage of the tariff bill.

The following bills were referred:

By Fuller—Authorizing the issue of treasury notes, taking up of greenbacks and national bank notes, prohibiting contraction of currency and repealing internal revenue laws.

By Turner—Making it illegal for any member of either house of congress to act as general advisory attorney for certain corporations and patentees. Also a joint resolution directing the committee of civil service reform of the two houses to inquire into the propriety of limiting the executive patronage by constitutional amendment and also as to the propriety of adopting some new method of keeping the accounts of the federal government.

By Potter—A joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment as to sessions of congress. It proposes that after 1880 there shall be but one session every two years, unless when congress shall be convened by the president.

The house then went into committee of the whole, Garfield in the chair, on the pension appropriation bill.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Democrats Deceived in New Doorkeeper

The Tribune's special from Washington says: There has been much inquiry at the capitol to day about the political bearings of the new doorkeeper Gen Field. On his own showing he turns out to be a Republican. He has been serving for some time under Republican commissioners of the district and has also been a candidate for foreign appointments and recommended as a Republican by prominent Republican politicians. If his sympathies are with the Democratic party he has recently succeeded in keeping that fact very quiet.

Wells on a Personal Mission.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Madison Wells protests that he is not in Washington on a political mission. His real business here is to press a claim of his own which has been pending before the southern claims commission for some time.

Decided for an Income Tax

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The ways and means committee to day decided by one majority in favor of the income tax. The yeas were Tucker, Sales, Robbins, Harris, Burch and Gibson—6. Nays were Wood, Garfield, Banks, Kelly and Phelps—5. Details of the measure have yet to be prepared.

Sargent's Anti-Chinese Resolution

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Senator Sargent to day gave notice that he will to morrow call up his joint resolution on the Chinese question with a view of affording his colleague (Booth) a chance to speak upon it, and that he will immediately thereafter move its reference to the foreign relations committee, from whom he hopes for speedy action.

Umatilla Reservation.

Mitchell made an argument before the senate committee on Indian affairs to-day in advocacy of his bill authorizing the removal of the Indians from Umatilla reservation and opening its lands to settlement.

First Silver Certificates.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The first installment of silver certificates amounting to $40,000 was delivered to-day from the bureau of engraving and printing to the U S treasury.

The Four per cent Loan in Portland

The 1st national bank of Portland, Oregon, has been designated a depository to receive deposits on account of subscriptions to the 4 per cent funded loan.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE

It is said that a fund amounting to $200,000 is in the hands of John Wanamaker and George H Stuart, of Philadelphia, and John V Farwell, of Chicago, as trustees, and that Moody and Sankey's support comes from the proceeds of this fund.

The general eldership or conference of the Church of God is announced to meet at Syracuse, Ind., May 29. The Church of God is a German Baptist organization composed largely of well to do farmers. Its greatest strength lies in Pennsylvania. It has 13 annual elderships or conferences in the north and west.

The Kentucky conference of the northern and southern Methodist churches have exchanged cordial fraternal greetings. The southern recognizes the right of the northern conference to occupy the same field and says there has always been fraternity between the two churches in this section, only it has been held in abeyance by circumstances.

At a meeting of Episcopalians held recently at Baltimore, it was stated that the church has 17 chapels in the south for colored people and 67 clergymen and teachers, five of whom are colored. It was held by some of the speakers that of the 5,000,000 colored people, one third had since the war risen to a higher civilization, one-third had gone down to a lower plane, and one third were left victims of circumstances.

The statistics for 1878 of the Congregational churches of this country show that they have [illegible] churches, a net increase of [illegible] members, a net gain of [illegible] ministers, a net gain of [illegible] Sunday school scholars, a net gain of [illegible]. Severe on the Clergy

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—At a meeting of the Eleventh Ward Workingmen's Club to night the following resolution was adopted without a dissenting voice:

WHEREAS, The clergy of this city have made common cause with capitalists [illegible] political thieves to break up this movement; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we stand shoulder to shoulder in this movement until death or victory is the result.

Resolved, That we would suggest to the Archbishop to look after his spiritual affairs and not the movement [illegible]

A committee of three was appointed to wait upon the archbishop and ascertain if he employs Chinese servants, and if he does and will not discharge them he will be put on the black list. During the meeting of the club the archbishop was repeatedly made the object of the grossest insults by members. It was decided that hereafter meetings of the club shall be secret to enable them to more effectually provide for organizing a resistance to the vigilance committee which is supposed to be in existence.

Civil Service in the Fire Department.

The board of fire commissioners to day ousted all employes of the department who hold official positions under the city, state or general government in addition to their positions in the department.

Fire—A Mother and Her Two Children Perish.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—About 3 o'clock this morning a fire broke out at No 1414 Stockton, between Vallejo and Green streets. The building was occupied on the first floor by a fruit dealer, and the second floor by Mrs Jane Stewart as a residence and lodging house. The fire was discovered in a room in the rear of the fruit stand used by the proprietor as a bedroom and is supposed to have originated from the bursting of a coal oil lamp. The lodgers on the upper floor were at once alarmed and they in turn aroused Mrs Stewart, who with her two children, Charles and Henry, aged [illegible] and [illegible] years respectively, slept in a room directly over that in which the fire was discovered. Mrs S replied to the cries of the lodgers and it was supposed effected escape in safety, but when the firemen had obtained control of the flames so as to enable them to explore the building, the body of Mrs Stewart was found on the floor near the door of the room. One of the children was also found on the floor and the other on the bed. All had died from suffocation, the fire not having reached that apartment. It is supposed Mrs Stewart became bewildered by fright and was unable to open the door in her excitement. She was a native of England, aged 33 years.

Stealing their Organ's Funds

Stockholders of the Open Letter held an exciting meeting last night at Charter Oak Hall. The meeting was called to take some action in regard to handing over the future control of the paper to an executive committee of the Workingmen's party. Dr Ferdenanderz produced a statement showing that from the 1st to the 16th of January receipts were $2,407 75 and expenses $961 41, which should have left $1,446 34 cash on hand, but that there was actually only $31 60 in the treasury. This statement was found to be in Stout's handwriting, and that individual was unanimously expelled from his position as secretary. Dr Ferdenanderz requested an explanation of this state of affairs, but Kearney ignored the request entirely. After protracted debate the meeting adjourned without having accomplished anything in that respect.

The First Silver Dollars

The first duties paid in new silver dollars at the San Francisco custom house were received last night.

D O Mills and the Bank of California.

At the regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Bank of California yesterday D O Mills tendered his resignation as president, to take effect May 1st. The reason assigned is pressure of private business. The resignation was accepted and Wm Alvord, vice president, was chosen to fill the vacancy. It is not probable that the vacancy thus occasioned in the position of vice president will be filled.

Investigation of the Chinese Question.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—It transpires that a special secret agent sent out by President Hayes has been in the city for several weeks investigating the Chinese question. He is an old army comrade of the president—Colonel John G Sykes, from Ohio. His instructions were to preserve a strict incognito so far as his official mission was concerned. In his inspection of Chinatown and other matters [illegible] he received the assistance of the chief of police and several of his subordinates. It is surmised that the president's purpose was to obtain material for his promised special message on the Chinese question. Having fulfilled his mission Col Sykes took his departure for Washington a few days ago.

The Virtue Mining Company's Affairs.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—The sale of property in the bankruptcy case of the Virtue Gold Mining Company has been confirmed by Judge Hoffman. The property consists of the Union, Eureka, Prospect, Rocky, Colonel, Ruckel, Gopher and Hoosier quartz lodes, two quartz mills with outbuildings and grounds, hoisting works, pumps, etc., located near Baker City. The sale was made by auction in this city on the 25th of last month, and R H Brown was the purchaser for $10,000.

Suicides.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—Patrick Farrelly, aged 63, a native of Ireland, committed suicide yesterday afternoon at his residence on Silver street. He went into the back yard, seated himself upon a small keg, bared his arm, opened an artery with a razor, and taking such a position that the blood would run into an empty keg by his side, slowly bled to death. He had been greatly troubled with rheumatism and had threatened to kill himself several times.

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—Dr H Allovin, a native of Cuba, committed suicide this morning by cutting his throat with a razor at his home in the Hotel de Paris. He leaves a family in San Francisco, to which place he had purchased a ticket.

Fixing the Price of Water.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10. The commission consisting of Messrs Friedlander, Williams, Babcock, Lincoln and Howard, appointed to fix the water rate, held a session to-day. The commissioners devoted most of the time to the examination of the value estimates of the Spring Valley Water Company, and desiring further information in this regard asked the company to submit a statement in detail. The commissioners on the part of the city express the belief that they will be able to secure rates much below the prices now charged for water and think the reduction can be accomplished at the meeting to be held next Monday.

Abbott the Absconder.

Geo W Abbott, broker, who fled to Acapulco with $40,000 belonging to the Anglo-Californian Bank, was before the police court to day on a charge of grand larceny, upon which he waived an examination. Captain Lees testified that Abbott returned voluntarily and had restored all but a few thousand dollars of the money, half of which would be recovered soon. Mr McAllister, for the defense, asked the court in view of the facts as stated by Capt Lees and in view also of the physical and mental condition of the prisoner to fix the bail as low as possible. The More Murder Case. A Confession

SAN [illegible], April 10.—[illegible] the More [illegible] W. H. [illegible] yesterday and his former [illegible] under [illegible] information he had [illegible] The conviction strengthens that Swans and [illegible] were not present at the murder though like [illegible] they were invited to join in the conspiracy. The prosecution say they expect [illegible] No decision will be made except that the [illegible] two above named will be detained.

[illegible] one of the prisoners arrested for the More murder has made a full written confession implicating Sprague, Churchill, Ford, Curtis, McCarty and a new man [illegible] Hunt. [illegible] He was arrested tonight and Cook and Swans [illegible] Jones was present at the killing and his statement fully confirms that already given by witnesses Hickerson, Brown and others. Jones is a cousin of Jones, one of the detectives who worked up the case. The detective, before proceeding far, found his cousin deeply implicated and of course [illegible] made terms with the authorities to save his neck. The impression is [illegible] doubt as to the guilty parties. Hunt has hitherto borne an irreproachable character and his arrest is a great surprise to the community.

HOME INDUSTRIES

CURRENCY AND LABOR—WHAT IS DOING IN PORTLAND

The Advance gives the item that a ten dollar bill was made to pay ninety dollars indebtedness in five minutes. The use of money is for currency to pay for materials and labor. The more work done with or upon the raw materials the less currency is needed in proportion. Suppose a mechanic receives $20 per week and pays it to others who in turn pay it to others for debts and so on, the $20 will soon pay $200 indebtedness. This is often done. Home manufactures keep money in healthy business circulation, like blood in the body. Of 927 iron furnaces in South Wales at the beginning of 1877 only 500 were at work in November. The result was lack of food. Hunger drove families who had lived in affluence to eat potato peelings, raw cabbages and anything they could find. To put out the furnace fires was like stopping their heart beat.

Besides the waste of cash for whisky and tobacco, which brings want to many a poor fellow and starvation to innocent wives and children, the lack of a chance to work has put many sober laborers among us on short allowance and brought them face to face with grim hunger. Thanks for the relief afforded by our industries.

There are over 40 kinds of manufactories in Portland which represent from one to a dozen shops each. Twenty five of these firms employ 500 men on a pay roll of $30,000 per month and a monthly expense of $26,000 for Oregon materials, besides the materials imported. Fifty or more other firms probably expend nearly as much more for labor and materials not imported, making the monthly outlay $100,000 or more.

It is easy to see that weekly payments for labor—which is the common rule—increase the products and diminish the sum of money needed for currency. The quick penny does the work of the slow dollar.

LABOR A LARGER ITEM IN THE VALUE OF PRODUCTS

It is also plain that every home industry, however small, adds from two to twenty fold value to the raw material. The miller turns five dollars worth of wheat into a barrel of flour worth $6, which the baker puts into flour worth $10.

The Imperial and the Oregon City mills can furnish 600 barrels of flour every 24 hours, adding $600 to the cost of the wheat. The bakers add $2,400 more to it.

CLOTHING

From 60 to 80 per cent of the cost of woolen clothing is labor, only 10 to 20 per cent is paid for the raw material. The 700,000 lbs of wool manufactured per year in the Oregon City mills get a largely increased value in flannels and blankets and cloths. The latter in clothing is five or six fold the cost of the raw material, which is to the credit of this home industry.

LUMBER

The fifteen millions of feet of lumber annually manufactured by the Weidler mill would sell at $11 per M. The stumpage is 50 cents per M. All the rest is labor. But this raw lumber will pay only $165,000, yet the firm yearly spend $192,000 for labor and materials. In doors and sash, lumber costs 33 and 25 per cent, labor adds 66 to 75 per cent. The planers, groovers, circulars, moulders, chisels, turners and skilled artizans put four to six times the first value upon the lumber, while one-third is wasted in saw dust.

Is it wise to import doors, windows and finishings, which can be manufactured by Messrs Weidler & Co, G Ainslie & Co and Nicholai Bros?

IRON

Oswego pig iron is worth 1½ cents per lb. Moulded into stoves it is worth 4 or 5 cents per lb. Why export the iron and import the stoves, and let laborers starve for lack of work, and boys who need and seek trades grow up in forced idleness?

Messrs Richards and Rogers of the Willamette Stove Works are casting at the rate of 1,600 stoves per annum, mostly of Oswego iron, which proves a valuable enterprise. The same pig iron in nails is worth from five to six cents per pound, or in bars or plates about as much, and in machinery 10 to 30 cents per pound. Why not have a rolling mill and a nail factory near the Oswego furnace, and thus supply the shops and the foundries with all they need and give employment to hundreds of workmen now here or soon to come? Our three foundries not only supply boilers, mill machinery and engines on orders from all parts of the vast Columbia valley, but fill orders for British Columbia and San Francisco. The home industries have grown up by the toil and enterprise of men who knew or who have learned their business, but who began with little money. They now form much of the solid strength of the community. To export raw materials like wheat, hides, wool, the finer lumber, pig iron and flax, and to import machinery, boots and shoes and other clothing, plate and bar iron and steel, paper, furniture, ornaments and luxuries, is to employ only a few persons for the exchange and transportation on commission, while it drains off the bulk of our income and the natural riches of the country and leave the majority of the people poor, and out of work. It is to love our neighbors abroad better than ourselves.

THE PER CENT OF COST OF MATERIAL

Sixty dollars in every hundred worth of average boots in case, I am told by the manufacturer, is in the cost of the leather. The raw hides cost here very little, yet we export them and import the leather, and force our tanneries—except one at Astoria and one at Aurora—to close up, and leave our thousands of acres of choice hemlock forests exposed to summer fires.

TRADES FOR CHILDREN

A thousand boys and girls in Oregon and Washington will soon wish to learn the trade of boot and shoe making and binding. It is cheaper to furnish them work in the home, to learn to work, than to support them in idleness with its inevitable follies and vices.

Oregon and Washington and Idaho import $[illegible] worth of boots and shoes in case [illegible] the estimate can be made. Our skilled workmen [illegible]

LABOR IN [illegible]

The objection that labor costs too much and that skilled artisans cannot be had [illegible] they are now here seeking work [illegible] coming. We have many immigrants; they come. They must be fed and employed. All cannot be farmers or produce the raw materials for export. Labor must put its value upon goods and get its reward in [illegible] own people [illegible] California used $1,000,000 worth of boots and shoes in 1876 and exported $200,000 worth. Of the $1,000,000 they made $100,000 worth and imported the rest. They now propose to compete with English woolen manufacturers in the markets of China. Whatever adds home industries helps the workingman to set up, [illegible] which is all that he asks.

PORTLAND ASSURED

Some doubt the growth of Portland, but a city [illegible] its millions of imports and exports, that already circulates over $25,000 per week or $1,300,000 per year by its home manufactures, and sends its furniture, its stoves, its house finishings and iron fronts, its mill machinery and its engines with its other products of home industry to all the settlements in the vast basin of the Columbia, has ever reason for faith in its future. Well situated to get materials and transmit goods, and having tested its ability to produce them in quality and cheapness equal to those imported, its prosperity rests secure with its own people.

POWER

Its lack of cheap waterpower is amply supplied at Oswego, Clackamas and Oregon City, from seven to twelve miles distant.

AN EXAMPLE

Boston men about fifty years ago resolved to use the waterpowers of New England, first at Nashua, next at Lowell and so on at other available points, building dams across the Merrimac and Connecticut and many other smaller streams. Now their manufacturing cities vie with those of England and their goods compete in her own markets and in all the markets of the world.

Like England they import most of the raw materials of all kinds and most of their food. All their coal is also imported. Yet machinery and home industry have given all those towns a prosperous growth, and increased the population of Boston from 40,000 to 350,000, and its wealth in like measure. The home manufactures which that city has promoted have returned ten fold benefits to itself and to all the eastern states. Every village or city that encourages its local manufactures preserves and increases its own business life. To neglect them is to lose its own vitality. Portland has a choice position to aid home industries within her own limits, and to be the center of exchange for the products of looms, mills, foundries, and shops of all kinds in the state.

Food is abundant and cheap. Raw materials come from all the valleys that flow into the channel of the Columbia. All goods can return cheaply by the same routes. The industries now established with such success assure an increased prosperity. It is wise to help them and begin others.

THE DEMAND FOR LABOR

In the boot and shoe shop of George L Hibbard & Co there is machinery which girls and boys can learn to work with success and profit. Division of labor in this and in other business gives success. No man in a large factory makes the whole boot or shoe, but every workman has his part to do. In order to build up this home industry capital is needed to first employ the skilled and to train the unskilled, and thus to raise up a class of home bred artisans always ready for this growing trade. The manufactories of San Francisco have a large number of boys learning the trade. Many thousands learn it in New England. Parents in Oregon will find it a good business for their boys and girls.

OUR MARKETS

The cost of boots and shoes for every person is estimated at $10 per year. At that rate the yearly expense for 150,000 people in Oregon is $1,500,000. The imports equal that sum. Add 25,000 this year to the population of the Columbia basin and you will add $250,000 to the cost of this one item of boots and shoes for them. The imports next year will be $1,750,000, for which we must pay gold to the manufacturers of San Francisco and the East.

The Messrs Capen Bros can put $20,000 and Messrs Hibbard & Co $25,000 more of their home products into the hands of jobbers at a profit, but this small lot is not a fortieth part of the demand.

San Francisco reported $3,000,000 worth manufactured in 1876, and Chicago jobbers and manufacturers in and out of the city sold $14,000,000 in 1877. There is need in Oregon of

LEATHER MANUFACTURERS

From $60 to $65 in every $100 is spent for leather. Mr J B Congle imported $20,000 worth of leather for his saddle and harness shop in 1877 and bought $10,000 worth of Oregon made leather. The whole, he says, could have been made here of as good quality.

G L Hibbard & Co bought about $2,000 worth of Oregon made leather, mostly of Mr Lerchenweber in Astoria, and imported $10,000 from California and $20,000 from the East. It could all be made, he says, in Oregon. We import probably $15 worth of leather to $1 worth made in Oregon. Hemlock is the great staple for the tanner. Our state abounds in hemlock. Our hides are exported by thousands. The water and climate favor this business. Men and boys wait to be employed in it. Special facts upon other industries with statistical tables will soon be published.

G H ATKINSON

A proposition has been made by Mrs Gaines to compromise with the city of New Orleans, for $2,500,000, payable in ten years in annual installments. Owing to the impoverished condition of that city she is receiving no income from the enormous property her legal rights to which have been established.

RUSSIAN REPLY TO ENGLAND

There is better prospect of a conference or congress of the powers on the European question England accepts Russia's reply in a pacific spirit But that reply makes the case of Russia especially as against England a very strong one England is reminded that Russia solicited her co-operation before the war began, to bring a pressure on the porte for amelioration of the condition of its oppressed subjects and it is insisted that had England complied it is altogether probable the result could have been secured without war But the British government though assured by its own agents of the truth of the great oppressions and atrocities reported did not join with Russia in pressing the necessary reforms And now Russia having borne the sacrifices alone asserts her right to enforce the results which she asked England to help her secure through pacific effort This is plausible and strong but it is easy to see that Russia in her present movements may be going further than the interests of other powers allow It is natural that she should attempt to disguise her objects and convince England of the rightfulness of her cause The reply is an ingenious and able effort to keep England out now on the ground that she refused to come in before the war was fought The tone is very firm and though England seems to deem it conciliatory it is difficult to understand how she can consider it a promise or indication that Russia will abandon any of her assumptions

The London Spectator is a liberal newspaper and peace organ But it concedes that England may be called on by force of circumstances to accept war with Russia. In a very considerate article it shows how little reason England would have to apprehend any great national disaster in case of war It says that England can send to Turkey and support there an army which, while it cannot conquer Russia, or defeat Russia, or directly expel Russia, can nevertheless impose on Russia sacrifices to be rid of it such as Wellington imposed on Napoleon,—"sacrifices during which every enemy of Russia would have time for preparation for alliances and for the formation of those decisions the absence of which now cripples the action of half Europe" Again "There is not a statesman in Europe, from St Petersburg to Rome who does not know that if England enters into this war, every condition of the situation will be changed—that all that Russia has accomplished as yet will go for naught, that the final solution of the eastern question will recede as far into the distance as ever, that Russia in the first place, and all Europe immediately after, will have incalculable trials to sustain" The Spectator continues "We have not the forces to defeat the Russian army, if encamped opposite ours upon a plain, but we have the force to say that if such and such arrangements are not made we shall fatally disarrange all Russian plans for half a century and to keep our word. The expense would be tremendous, the disturbance to all interests would be serious, and the political complications during the war might be most irritating, but of the ultimate result we have only so much fear as befits all men who know that in war the unforeseen is so frequently that which occurs." This is very judicious Nothing could be said that would better meet the situation.

RESUMPTION

Secretary Sherman talks hopefully of his ability to resume specie payments at the date fixed by law, namely, January 1, 1879 But that he will succeed is not so clear The silver law causes additional uncertainty and creates new complications It is pointed out by the New York Times that the resources of the treasury at the time resumption is attempted will not be of a clear and undoubted value They will consist partly of gold and partly of silver, and the value of the latter will be uncertain No one will know whether the greenback will be worth its face in silver or in gold, and the first condition of safety for the treasury is the general conviction that the greenbacks are and will remain equal in value to gold" By January 1st only a few millions of silver dollars will have been coined; hence gold must be the main dependence to sustain resumption. But the knowledge that greenbacks will be redeemed in silver as soon as a considerable supply of silver is coined, joined with the fact that the silver coin has much less actual value than gold coin, will create a tendency to get rid of paper as fast as possible and lay hold of gold and this tendency will certainly grow stronger, because holders of paper will want to get gold for it before the time comes when they will be forced to take silver or before paper depreciates to the actual value of the silver dollar That value is about 92 cents and the silver dollar is certain to recede to it as soon as a sufficient supply is coined to answer the special demand for payment of duties without the aid of gold. Deprived of the special support of gold the decline of silver is as certain as the operation of gravity and as greenbacks will be redeemable in silver their value will adjust itself to the silver basis But before this comes to pass every business man will want to get gold for greenbacks, if any chance offers, and the result would be a rapid run on the treasury which would denude it of its gold and make resumption a sham The success of resumption depends not necessarily on a supply of gold in the treasury equal to the redemption of the whole volume of greenbacks at once but on keeping the confidence of the country at a point where actual redemption will not be demanded. Now the silver law tends inevitably to weaken confidence in stability of values and therefore it will be the means of creating a run for gold as soon as resumption is attempted Under these circumstances it will be extremely doubtful whether resumption can be sustained and in that case we shall have a practical illustration of the folly and evil of legislation that attempts to supply a cheaper money. We doubt whether Secretary Sherman will succeed as he professes to expect Confidence is the thing most of all required, and confidence is shaken by the introduction into our circulation of a kind of money of unstable value Hence the [illegible] law instead of aiding resumption will operate powerfully against it

There are abundant signs that the [illegible] racy of Oregon are not very hopeful of success For the first time in many years the principal offices have gone a-begging Yesterday a search was [illegible] all day long for candidates which a good deal resembled the search made by Diogenes through the street with a lantern in open day for an honest man, and it seemed almost as hopeless Not since the days of the war when Democracy in Oregon preferred the cool shades of retirement and obscurity have candidates been so modest and backward as now Among leading members of the party there is an almost alarming prevalence of ill health which disqualifies for public duties and those who fortunately retain their health are in many instances preoccupied with private business or have an invincible repugnance to engaging in politics

By those who claim to know it is asserted that the reason why Mr Ben Simpson was not reappointed was that Secretary Schurz refused to recommend him though Senator Mitchell employed every possible effort to secure the reappointment With his fine [illegible] theories of civil service Schurz is disturbing things a great deal The true theory [illegible] that the offices and the private property of senators to be disposed of as rewards to their friends On this principle Mr Simpson was entitled to the office from Senator Mitchell and that a mere doctrinaire of politics should interfere in such a case is calculated to have a rather depressing effect on the party We hoped to see Mr Simpson reappointed but this administration is doing strange things

How to work up the financial portion of their platform is the problem which appears to puzzle the architects who were at work for the Democratic convention yesterday and last night To reconcile rag currency theories with sound money principles isn't an easy job A way out of it is for the members of the committee on resolutions to agree that gold silver and greenbacks are all good enough for them There would be breadth in that

If the Union and Central Pacific roads were compelled to pay the thirty eight million dollars back interest which government has paid for them so that the country might feel that it was even on that transaction we should have much less difficulty in obtaining railway aid for the northwest

Acting Governor Chadwick was here yesterday, they say but seeing how things were going he left an ungrateful party to its fate and took the afternoon train for home

GOOD SEED

No inferior or damaged seed of any kind ought ever to be planted We have heard of wheat which was damaged by rains of last fall being kept by Oregon farmers for sowing It is likely to prove a mistake and serious loss In cases possibly it may not prove so and yet such is always a probable result Only clean, bright sound grain of any kind should be sown On the general subject of good seed we take the following from the Western Record

There are few farmers who have not at one time or another suffered serious losses from using poor seed It is the desire of every person who plants to reap as fair rewards as is possible but the time and labor and care as well as the expectations of the year may all be sacrificed by negligence in planting bad seed It is good policy to save seed from the best that is raised but under the system generally adopted, or—to be more explicit—the want of care and judgment in saving seeds, they appear to degenerate from year to year hence the necessity of obtaining such as are fresh possessing as near as may be the maximum of vitality

Albany and Brownsville Railroad.

[From the Albany Register]

At Brownsville last Saturday night a number were in attendance at the railroad meeting and the enthusiasm was clear up to the sticking point A committee was appointed to file articles of incorporation for the Albany Lebanon and Brownsville Railroad Company consisting of Messrs J H Washburn, O P Coshow J. M Myer, H R Powell and L White Brownsville is good for $25 000 of the capital stock Sandridge can be put down at $10 000 Lebanon should put up $15 000 or $20 000 when it is confidently believed that Albany will come forward with the balance needed to build and equip a narrow-gauge railroad between the two points Our Brownsville friends are in earnest in the matter and hold enthusiastic meetings every Saturday night As soon as articles of incorporation are filed subscription books will be opened both at Brownsville and in this city when we hope all interested in the success of the enterprise will subscribe at once and liberally for stock in the road There is not the shadow of a doubt but that the road will pay large dividends on the money invested in it when completed and there is still less doubt as to the ability of our people to build it if they so will it

Grain Yield East of the Cascades.

[From the Walla Walla Statesman]

A few years since it was the custom with the merchants and traders of Portland and San Francisco to decry this country and refer to it as a sandy desert, doomed to eternal desolation Now they go off on the other tack and overrate it As an illustration they talk of the country east of the mountains marketing, this year ten million bushels of wheat This is simply absurd We have the land to produce four times ten million bushels but it is not occupied and the people to cultivate the land are not here It is quite sure that the yield of this season will be greatly in excess of that of last year and possibly will foot up between two and three million bushels This estimate doubles the figures of last year, and certainly speaks well for the progress already made With the immigration now coming in we may calculate, with a favorable season, in 1879 to market ten million bushels, and after that year it is safe to say that the Columbia river valley will take rank as the greatest grain producing district in the United State Just now our friends abroad are placing figures too high but in a year or two from date we will justify their wildest estimates.

"Oh! He has an Economical Wife."

[Washington Letter to Philadelphia Star]

Already rumor is busy, with the name of one of the leading officials of the government, who is living in style and driving a pair of fast trotters on a salary of $4,000 a year There are whisperings about another official whose salary is $1 000 a year less than the first mentioned, who entertains handsomely in a large and stylish house and who is known to be accumulating property He was extremely poor when first appointed to office by Grant. When a man gets an office here and suddenly gets rich people naturally ask how he can save so much on so small a salary Senator Edmunds, when asked about a man so situated—receiving $2,500 a year living at the rate of $10 000 and always accumulating property—replied with a sarcastic smile "Oh! he has an economical wife."

Only One Honorable Course

[From the Boston Advertiser]

The chasm between paper and coin has been almost bridged over We are within speaking distance of the specie basis It would be not merely criminal folly but the most despicable faint heartedness that would hesitate now considering the position in which we stand and the repeated assurances of the secretary that the rest is easy Mr Sherman is willing to stake his reputation as a practical financier on his ability to carry the country through the crisis and land it safely on the solid ground of the specie basis Most of the doubts as to his ability to do it come from those who candidly confess that they do not wish to see accomplished that for which he is working We can fail without dishonor but we cannot repeal the promise to try without disgrace.

What Jay Gould Wanted

[From the N Y Times March 22]

The Tribune showed the guiding hand or rather the propelling foot, of Jay Gould yesterday In an article on The Government Railroad Bargains This article was devoted to a fulsome eulogy of Mr Stanley Matthews and a specious defense of his plan for swindling the people in the interests of the Pacific railroads. What the Tribune calls an attempt to break the bargain entered into with these corporations, is simply an attempt to compel them to respect the spirit of their contract, which they have heretofore contrived to disregard The plan of Mr Matthews proposes to give the railroads better terms than they got in the original bargain It will certainly not be recommended to respectable men by the support of Jay Gould's newspaper.

That Brand of Fraud.

[From the Washington Post]

Charles Francis Adams Jr has taken that government directorship of the Union Pacific under advisement Do we understand that the delicate etching of Fraud upon the Brow of Mr Hayes is to be obliterated by Charles Francis Adams, Sr? This is Really Suggestive

[From the Philadelphia Times

It is about time Mr Dan Voorhees and Mr [illegible] [illegible] dug themselves up and gave some indication that they still [illegible] They have not been heard from [illegible] suspiciously long time the silver dollar isn't [illegible] as freely as people had expected the resumption act is not repealed the price of eggs has gone down to 16 cents a dozen and the fall elections are coming on [illegible]

Prof Moses Coit Tyler has nearly completed the first volume of his History of American Literature, and a part of the MS is in the printer's hands This [illegible] the colonial period and is so large [illegible] itself

SILVER AND THE LATIN UNION

It was announced some days ago that in pursuance of the silver act of our congress Secretary Evarts had sent out his invitation to the Latin Union for a conference in behalf of bi-metallism The action of [illegible] will decide the matter and of France the London [illegible]

The [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] experiment [illegible] appealed to by President Hayes in his [illegible] invitation will we have no doubt be appreciated by so enlightened a financier as M Say He will [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the new experiment which waits [illegible] solution in America [illegible] persons have induced the legislature of their country to endorse a speculation in favor of the [illegible] and federal treasuries and without even having previously [illegible] its mission by foreign nations [illegible] of contracts in which the latter are interested to invest the speculation with a sort of humanitarian aspect by this cosmopolitan project of a conference But the projectors seem to have overlooked that France the chief nation of the Latin Union put the double standard in [illegible] fetters and to her enduring honor refused to avail herself of the plan of securing an abundant supply of cheap money by leaving that standard free as she might have left it in the days of her financial difficulty after the German war Scientific reasons and historical experience are now all the stronger for her again refusing to entertain any similar proposal in the days of her well earned prosperity.

THURSDAY MORNING APRIL 11 1878

CITY.

FIRE LAST NIGHT —Last evening a few minutes before [illegible] o'clock smoke and flames were seen issuing from the large three story brick building standing at the corner of Second and Alder streets and occupied by Chinese An alarm was sounded which speedily brought the department to the scene The fire caught under the roof in the rear of the building used as a restaurant How the large building is not known but it is supposed to have caught from a defective flue Once or twice the flames were seen to leap skyward but several powerful and well directed streams quickly subdued the fire Before the fire was entirely extinguished it was necessary to flood the building so that most of the damage resulted from water The actual damage from the fire is very light The alarm caused great consternation among the denizens of the building who began to carry away their effects and merchandise under the belief that the whole structure was doomed to destruction However the excitement subsided when they found that the flames had been subdued The building and contents were insured in three companies the total amount aggregating $6 000 The corner building is [illegible] by the Chinese firm of Yeun Wa & Co

STEAMER ELDER —The steamship Geo W Elder, which sailed from San Francisco last Saturday failed to reach this port Tuesday evening, as was confidently expected. For some reason considerable public anxiety was felt concerning the safety of the steamer and during the day several absurd stories were in circulation one of which was that she was disabled off the bar and that several tugs had gone out to her assistance There was really no occasion for the least solicitude about the safety of the steamer and why and how these rumors originated is singular Last evening, about 4 o'clock all doubts were dispelled by the welcome intelligence that the Elder had reached Astoria at the hour mentioned and would sail for Portland at 6 P M She will reach here early this morning All's well that ends well

HEAVY SALE.—A Bush Esq of Salem, has bought of Benj Stark block 41 in this city bounded by First Oak, Second and Stark streets It includes the building known as Oro Fino Hall and numerous others. The price paid is $60 000 This is we believe, the heaviest sale ever made in Portland. The buildings are of little value but the block is one of the most desirable and valuable in the city It is purchased by a gentleman whose means are ample for construction of buildings thereon suitable to its locality, and we understand that it will not be long till such improvements are made

CLAM CHOWDER —Tiger Engine Co., living a good way up on the hill may sometimes be a little behindhand in getting to a fire. This is inevitable from the location of their engine house, but the right royal clam chowder," etc., which they set up for a large number of guests last night, clearly proves that they are not a whit behind other companies in the department in genuine hospitality, sociability and whole souled fireman-like feeling All present enjoyed themselves and wished Tigers a long life of prosperity and usefulness to which we most heartily join.

LECTURER COMING —We learn from good authority that the noted free thinker and liberal lecturer, Frederic Schuenemann Pott, will visit this city shortly, to deliver a course of lectures in the German language at Turn Halle. This will be quite a literary treat for our German population as Mr Schuenemann Pott is known to be one of the finest speakers on this coast

BOAT CAPSIZED —Capt. Fisher, of the steamer Ordway when just below Tongue point, on Monday morning saw a fishing boat capsized, with two men clinging to her bottom. He could not leave the ship which he was towing to rescue them and therefore signaled a small boat near Watson's cannery, which went to relieve them from their perilous position

MR. CRESWELL'S STATEMENT.—Mr. David P. Creswell called at this office yesterday and stated that he was married by the Rev. Father Fierens at his (Fierens) private parlor last Thursday He affirms most positively that such is the case notwithstanding what statements to the contrary may be made. We give Mr Creswell the benefit of his statement.

THIRTY DAYS —Chinaman Lee the Celestial who was arrested a few days ago charged with the larceny of three pairs of pants, was tried yesterday in the police court Defendant was found guilty and committed to the county jail for the period of thirty days

NEW EXPRESS OFFICE — Wells Fargo & Co have opened an express office at Aurora, and appointed Mr A. W Hildebrandt as agent. This will be a great public accommodation.

OFF THE BAR —A dispatch received here last evening from Astoria states that the Barracouta from Victoria, is outside with a pilot on board waiting a smooth bar.

RELIGIOUS SERVICE.—At the Unitarian church this (Thursday) evening, the subject is "The Character of Christ." Meeting led by the pastor

NO QUORUM —There was no meeting last evening of the board of trade in consequence of the absence of a quorum

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION.

The competitive examination of applicants for admission to the military academy at West Point began yesterday in the office of Capt. R H Lamson at 10 o'clock. The following gentlemen compose the examining committee Capt R. H Lamson clerk U S district court Dr E. J. Bailey U S army Prof I W. Pratt principal Harrison street school Mr C B Bellinger clerk supreme court Oregon Col J M Wilson U S A

The following young gentlemen entered the list of competitors

Woodbridge Geary of Eugene City age 20 years.
John W Rowland of Monmouth age 19 years.

Fire Last Night—Last evening, a few minutes before 7 o'clock smoke and flames were seen issuing from the large three story brick building standing at the corner of Second and Alder streets and occupied by Chinese. An alarm was sounded which speedily brought the department to the scene. The fire caught under the roof in the rear of the large building, used as a restaurant. How it caught is not known but it is supposed to have been from a defective flue. Once or twice the flames were seen to leap skyward but several powerful and well directed streams quickly subdued the fire. Before the fire was entirely extinguished it was necessary to flood the building so that most of the damage resulted from water. The actual damage from the fire is very light. The alarm caused great consternation among the inmates of the building who began to carry away their effects and merchandise under the belief that the whole structure was doomed to destruction. However the excitement subsided when they found that the flames had been subdued. The building and contents were insured in three companies the total amount aggregating $8 000. The corner building is owned by the Chinese firm of Yeen Wa & Co.

Steamer Elder.—The steamship Geo W Elder, which sailed from San Francisco last Saturday, failed to reach this port Tuesday evening, as was confidently expected. For this reason, considerable public anxiety was felt concerning the safety of the steamer and during the day several absurd stories were in circulation, one of which was that she was disabled off the bar, and that several tugs had gone out to her assistance. There was really no occasion for the least solicitude about the safety of the steamer, and why and how these rumors originated, is singular. Last evening about 6 o'clock, all doubts were dispelled by the welcome intelligence that the Elder had arrived at Astoria at the hour mentioned and would sail for Portland at 6 P M. She will reach here early this morning. All's well that ends well.

Heavy Sale.—A. Bush, Esq of Salem has bought of Benj. Stark, block 41 in this city, bounded by First, Oak, Second and Stark streets. It includes the building known as Oro Fino Hall and numerous others. The price paid is $80,000. This is, we believe the largest sale ever made in Portland. The buildings are of little value, but the block is one of the most desirable and valuable in the city. It is purchased by a gentleman whose means are ample for construction of buildings thereon suitable to its locality and we understand that it will not be long till such improvements are made.

Clam Chowder.—Tiger Engine Co living away up on the hill, may sometimes be a little behind in getting to a fire. This is excusable from the location of their engine house, but the right royal clam chowder, which they set up for a large number of guests last night clearly proves that they are not a whit behind other companies in the department in genuine hospitality, sociability and whole-souled fireman feeling. All present enjoyed themselves and wished Tigers a long life of prosperity and usefulness, in which we most heartily join.

Lectures Coming—We learn from good authority that the noted free thinker and liberal lecturer, Frederic Schueneman Pott, will visit this city shortly, to deliver a course of lectures in the German language at Turn Halle. This will be quite a literary treat for our German population, as Mr. Schueneman Pott is known to be one of the finest speakers on the coast.

Boat Capsized.—Capt. Fisher, of the steamer [illegible], when just below Tongue point, on Monday morning, saw a fishing boat capsized with [illegible] clinging to her bottom. He could not leave the ship which he was towing [illegible], and therefore signaled a boat [illegible] near Watson's cannery which [illegible] them from their perilous position.

[illegible] Statement.—Mr David P [illegible] called at this office yesterday and [illegible] was married by the Rev Father [illegible] at his (Fierens') private parlor last Sunday. He affirms most positively that [illegible] notwithstanding what statements to the contrary may be made. We give Mr. [illegible] the benefit of his statement.

Thirty Days.—Chinaman Lee, the Celestial [illegible] a few days ago charged with the theft of three pairs of pants was tried before the police court. Defendant was found guilty and committed to the county jail for a period of thirty days.

The Express Office—Wells, Fargo & Co have opened an express office at Aurora, and [illegible] W. Hildebrandt as agent. This will be a great public accommodation.

[illegible] dispatch received here [illegible] from Astoria states that the Bar [illegible] from Victoria, is outside with a pilot on board waiting a smooth bar.

Religious Services.—At the Unitarian [illegible] (Thursday) evening, the subject [illegible] Character of Christ." Meeting led [illegible].

[illegible]—There was no meeting last [illegible] the board of trade in consequence [illegible] of a quorum.

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION

The competitive examination of applicants for admission to the military academy at West Point [illegible] yesterday in the office of Capt R [illegible] at 10 o'clock. The following gentlemen composed the examining committee: Capt. E H Lamson, clerk U S district court; [illegible] U. S army; Prof J W. Pratt [illegible] Harrison street school; Mr C B [illegible] clerk supreme court, Oregon; Col [illegible], U. S. A.

The following young gentlemen entered the list of competitors:

[illegible] of Eugene City, age 20 years
[illegible] of Monmouth age 19 years.
[illegible] of Salem, age 17 years.
[illegible] of La Grande, 19 years of age
[illegible] of Portland, 17 years of age
[illegible] of East Portland 17 years of age
[illegible] of Portland 17 years of age
[illegible] of The Dalles, 18 years of age
[illegible] of The Dalles 18 years of age
[illegible] of Salem, 21 years of age

Two of the applicants were physically disqualified from entering the list.

The committee will probably not be able to report until Saturday.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

Yesterday forenoon at 11 o'clock the delegates from the various counties to the state convention met at Oro Fino Hall.

C B Bellinger chairman of the State Central Committee called the convention to order and stated that the first thing in order was the election of a temporary chairman.

M V Brown of Linn county and Judge Hayden of Polk were placed in nomination.

It was unanimously determined to settle the choice between these gentlemen by rising vote.

J S [illegible] of Columbia county and C A Petrain of Multnomah county were appointed to count the votes.

A vote was taken resulting in the election of M V Brown.

Mr Brown came forward amid prolonged applause and took the chair. He returned his thanks to the convention for the honor they had bestowed and stated that by the kind indulgence of the gentlemen composing the convention he should endeavor to serve them to the best of his humble ability. After briefly stating the purpose of the convention Mr Brown said the next thing in order would be the election of a temporary secretary.

C B Sitton of Multnomah county placed in nomination C A Petrain and Mr Lowe of Yamhill nominated Logan Story.

A vote being taken Mr Petrain was elected.

Judge Burnett of Benton county moved that a committee of five persons be appointed to act as committee on credentials.

One of the delegates moved to amend Judge Burnett's motion by appointing one person from each of the judicial districts.

The amendment was accepted and the motion as amended was carried.

The chair appointed the following persons to serve on the committee: Judge Burnett of Benton; S J Day of Jackson; M Stites of Linn; Al Zieber of Multnomah; Judge O S Savage of Wasco.

C B Sitton moved that Mr Logan Strong of Yamhill act as assistant temporary secretary. The motion prevailed unanimously.

A motion was made to appoint a committee consisting of five persons on order of business which provoked some discussion pro and con. The motion was at length voted down.

The motion to adjourn till 2 o'clock was also voted down.

After some discussion the convention took a recess for ten minutes. At the expiration of that time the convention was called to order by the chairman.

Judge Hayden of Polk rose and stated that the committee on credentials was not able to report and would not be for some time. He therefore moved that the convention adjourn until 2 o'clock to enable the committee to prepare their report and also allow the delegates an opportunity to obtain refreshments.

The motion was seconded and a rising vote being taken the motion was declared carried by the chairman.

Afternoon

The convention was promptly called to order at 2 P M by the temporary chairman who stated that the first order of business was the report of the committee on credentials.

Burnett of Benton stated that the committee on credentials was ready to report and the following

On motion the report was adopted without dissent.

Turner of Umatilla moved that a committee of five—one member from each judicial district—be appointed on order of business.

Thompson of Lane moved to amend by appointment of a committee of five on permanent organization and order of business. The amendment was carried and the motion as amended was adopted.

The chairman appointed as such committee Turner of Umatilla Craig of Union, Nickell of Jackson, Hoult of Linn and Richmond of Polk.

Bailey of Washington moved that a committee of one from each county be appointed to draft a platform for the convention, and accepted as an amendment the delegation of each county select the member of the committee from their county. Motion as amended was adopted.

The roll of the counties was then called and the following were announced as the

COMMITTEE ON PLATFORM

Baker, H Green Benton L B Ison Clackamas John Myers Clatsop A H Stone Columbia E Semple Coos D J Low Curry —— Douglas A D Barker Grant W H Clark Jackson A C Jones Josephine A C Jones Lake John Orth Lane J M Thompson Linn W B Bilyeu Marion Geo Downing Multnomah W W Thayer Polk Robt Clow Tillamook N Higginbottom, Umatilla J [illegible] Union J T Hunter Wasco N H Gates Washington I A Bailey Yamhill W I Townsend

SERGEANT AT ARMS

Awaiting the report of the committee on permanent organization and order of business Thompson of Lane moved that the delegation from Multnomah be requested to present the names of suitable persons to [illegible] sergeant at arms of the convention. The motion prevailed and the delegation presented the names of A B [illegible] [illegible] Goff such who were appointed.

A SPEAKER WANTED

[illegible] Bailey was then urged to make a little speech to fill up the time but he sat still and refused to edify the Democracy with any words of comfort or encouragement. It really seemed as if all the eloquent men had been struck dumb but a happy thought struck some member and he called for Ben Hayden who never fails and Ben mounting the platform opened his mouth and spoke merely to the effect that the delegates had a noble duty to perform that that duty was to work and not to talk that victory would surely follow if the convention selected good men and put them on a sound platform that all the troubles of the country were due to the fact that the Democracy had [illegible] out of power that the bonds ought to be paid in greenbacks [illegible] until the committee on permanent organization and order of business [illegible].

[illegible] AND ORDER OF BUSINESS

The committee on permanent organization and order of business then submitted their report as follows:

Mr Chairman—We your committee on permanent organization and order of business respectfully submit the following report: We recommend that the temporary officers be made the permanent officers. We also recommend the following order of business:

1 Adoption of platform
Nomination of [illegible] for governor
[illegible] for secretary of state for treasurer
for state printer
for superintendent of public [illegible]
Election of [illegible]
Election of state central committee
[illegible]

J H TURNER Chairman
ENOCH HOULT
A C CRAIG
[illegible] RICHMOND
CHAS NICKELL [illegible]

Cochran of Lane was called to the chair.

On motion the report of the committee on permanent organization was adopted.

The president of the convention M V Brown Esq then assumed the chair.

On motion the convention took a recess until 7 o'clock P M to give the committee on platform time to report.

Evening Session

The convention was called to order shortly after 7 o'clock.

The president of the convention stated that he was instructed to inform the convention that the committee on resolutions would not be ready to report for about half an hour whereupon after a little discussion a motion to take a recess for half an hour was made and carried.

After about one hour the convention was again called to order and the committee on platform submitted their report which was read by the secretary of the committee Mr Thompson of Lane.

After the report had been read Hayden moved to lay the report on the table till 9 A M to morrow. Lost.

Hayden moved to take a recess till 9 A M to morrow. Lost.

A motion to adopt the platform as a whole and discharge the committee was made.

Turner of Umatilla moved to amend by reading and considering the report by sections. The amendment prevailed and the motion as amended was adopted. The first section was then read as follows:

The Democracy of Oregon in convention assembled make the following declaration of principles:

First—That a simple government honestly and economically administered confined in its operations to the administration of justice and the preservation of the public peace is the only safeguard against the abuses of power to which persons in authority are prone and the corrupt and lavish appropriation of the public fund to corporations which has characterized the national administration for the past seventeen years.

On motion the section was adopted.

A motion was then made that the convention adjourn till 9 o'clock A M to morrow. After some debate in which Messrs Cutting and Hayden favored and Mr Downing opposed the motion was submitted to a vote and carried and the convention adjourned.

NOTE—The remainder of the platform as reported by the committee is not furnished for publication for the reason that it is deemed inadvisable to give it to the public till it had first been acted on by the convention.—[REPORTER.]

District Nominations

At the close of the session it was announced that the delegations from the several judicial districts would meet immediately to nominate candidates for district officers.

Delegates from the 1st judicial district met at the Clarendon hotel and nominated Hon P P Prim for judge and J R Neal for prosecuting attorney.

The delegates from the second district met at the office of Thayer & Williams organized and balloted ten times for a candidate for district attorney the result being 14 votes for S H Hazard 9 for C W Fitch and 6 for I Vineyard. Failing to agree on a nomination the delegation adjourned until 8 A M to morrow.

From the third judicial district the delegates met in the room adjoining the hall where the convention holds its sessions organized and without balloting for a candidate adjourned until 12 o'clock noon to morrow.

For the fourth district the delegates met in another room adjoining the general meeting hall and nominated John M Gearin of this city for prosecuting attorney.

Delegates from the fifth district met at the Occidental hotel and nominated L B Ison present incumbent for prosecuting attorney for that district.

A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many Physicians or how much medicine you have tried. It is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections Consumption Hemorrhages Asthma Severe Colds settled on the Breast Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, &c who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50 000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cts. Sold by all Druggists in America.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT

SALEM April 10 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Several names have been suggested in your columns from time to time in connection with nominations by the coming Republican state convention Will you allow just one word in favor of Prof T M Gatch He would accept the nomination—so I am assured—of state school superintendent if tendered by the convention No one would poll a stronger vote among the people and no one would better perform the duties of that office He is too little of the politician however to "button hole" or to write letters to the different delegates urging his claims If he were more a politician and therefore less adapted to the office he would perhaps use the ordinary tactics and thus make his nomination secure beyond question Will delegates who favor his nomination promise themselves in advance to support him in convention so as to be able to say to all who "button hole" or importune them for other candidates "we are already pledged?

REPUBLICAN

OREGON

At last advices there was but a few hundred dollars to raise to complete the subscription for the first ten miles of the Y, B railroad

In Salem schools male teachers receive an average of $78 33 a month, and female $52 50 Perhaps the district pays for muscle rather than brains

We hear a report that the store of Asher Marks at Roseburg, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, the safe broken open and $7 000 stolen We have no particulars

It is a big yarn, but the papers tell it, and therefore it must be true One day last week James Lewis killed six cougars and one deer with two shots from a rifle, just above Greenhorn bar on the Santiam

The Chicago Times rather intimates that Mr Tilden need not complain, for Mr Hayes is trying to be president just as little as possible under the circumstances.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 10, 1878

Gold in New York 101

Legal tenders in Portland—buying 98½ selling 99½.

Silver coin, 2@2½ per cent. discount

In business circles to day the condition of affairs was essentially unchanged except perhaps a noticeable increase in the amount of transactions incident to the growth of the business of the season. While the business done shows no increase of rates on loans, the call has assumed such volume that there seems to be less prospect of any depreciation than existed a few weeks ago This fact, however is not to be taken as evidence that any stringency is imminent or that a scarcity of funds for all legitimate purposes is to be feared. The supply of money is regarded as ample to meet any demand likely to arise from the increased volume of trade

The general merchandise market exhibits a very encouraging degree of activity and buyers are present from various parts of the interior making selections of seasonable goods. In quite as large proportion as usual orders are accompanied with the cash, and purchasers find that prices here are put down to a figure calculated to check any disposition on the part of retail men to go to San Francisco for supplies.

The real estate sale in which the consideration was $80,000 noted in our report to day is the largest ever occurred in the city and indicates the confidence of capitalists in the permanent growth of Portland.

Shipping Intelligence.

The steamship Geo W Elder will arrive some time during the night. Considerable uneasiness which turned out to be unfounded was felt at the fact that she did not arrive on time and we learn that some parties having freight on her took out extra insurance thereon under fear that some disaster had happened her

DR. BRENAN.
His Wonderful Success
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
Chronic and Acute Diseases,
He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.
HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness
has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh, Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature Loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time
THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands the delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health
THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual This accounts in part for his great professional success
All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.
DR BRENAN
will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps
Everything strictly confidential and honorable
THE DOCTOR
has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify CAUTION.
Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M BRENAN the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door Room No 7 Corbett's Block over O Connor's Store corner of Front and Washington streets

Trouble in Camp

SPRINGFIELD Ill April The Democratic convention of state There was trouble between the soft and hard delegations as to the platform

On the third ballot Cronkhite was nominated for state treasurer S M Etter present incumbent was on the first ballot renominated for superintendent of public instruction

After the platform was read W W O Brien of Chicago introduced a resolution commending the independence of Representative Springer in voting for Gen Shields for doorkeeper of the house of representatives The resolution acted as a fire brand and amid much excitement and confusion the convention was declared adjourned

The President still Serene

WASHINGTON April 11—The president does not seem in the least disturbed by the action of the recent Republican caucuses Those nearest him socially and politically say there is no probability whatever that he will do as requested by the resolution of Senator Sargent in the caucus last night to rescind the order forbidding participation in political meetings of officials of the executive branch of the civil service and these friends do not think it probable any such request will be made by the congressional committee though they may confer with the president on political affairs generally in view of the approaching election They say the president never declines to listen attentively to suggestions, but when he makes up his mind as to the rightfulness of any measure he adheres to it Republicans in congress for the great part will endeavor to avoid a direct issue with the president however much they disagree with him in some of his political measures

Gen Porter's Case

Gen Fitz John Porter has applied to the president for the appointment of a board to reconsider his case with particular reference to new testimony that could not be had on his former trial The president is considering what action he will take in the matter

Appointments

WASHINGTON April 1—The president nominated C C Ford of Virginia to be U S consul at La Union Salvador Register of the land office at Boise City Idaho John B Miller of Iowa.

Senator Booth on the Chinese Question

Booth's speech to day on the Chinese question was listened to very attentively by the most prominent senators of both parties and also by Judge Davis who belongs to neither It has undoubtedly contributed to the already flattering prospects of early favorable action on the subject.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

Disgraceful Scene at a Funeral.

LONDON April 11—The scenes at Lord Leitrim's funeral yesterday were very violent and disgraceful The mob that gathered in front of the church endeavored to capture the hearse declaring their intention to drag out the corpse They vituperated the late earl as old ruffian and heretic They also climbed the wall of the church yard, hustled the mourners and jeered yelled and hissed during the reading of the service Several mourners were roughly handled while endeavoring to make their way into the church-yard All of them had to pass out by an unfrequented way in the rear of the church to escape violence. Fifty constables were present, but were wholly inefficient to cope with the mob many of whom were drunk

Steamer Wrecked

LONDON April 11—The steamer Childwall Hall from Liverpool for Bombay has been wrecked at Sagres Portugal Twenty seven persons have been saved as far as known Starvation in Albania.

LONDON April 11—Districts in Albania on the sea coast and beyond river occupied by Montenegrins have been so ravaged by war that the inhabitants are starving The Montenegrins are unable to help them and an appeal has been made to Austria for help

The War in Africa

LONDON April 11—Detailed advices from Cape Town state that the outbreak of Secocoeni a powerful chief which was announced on the th inst surprised the Transvaal government which was unprepared and was only able to send 100 volunteers against 500 Kaffirs who were surrounding the fort. The Burghers forces of the Transvaal and Natal are concentrating to resist the apprehended outbreak of Cetewayo the Zulu chief Sir Bartle Frere governor of Cape Colony is still at King Williams town Five thousand men at Sandilli chief of the Galgakas the day the steamer sailed It was hoped that if they were successful that Sandilli and Dec chief of the Galgakas would both surrender The whole frontier however was very restless and a war feeling was strongly abroad

Conditions of Republican Success

From the Cincinnati Commercial

All these things do not seem to be favorable to the return of the Democratic party to power unless the disappointed complainants in the Republican party the ring representatives the carpet bag malignants the jobbers in public business have possession of the party organization and control it for their own purposes In that event Democratic triumph is not only certain but desirable If the Republican party can lift itself to the level of the administration accept its good works as well as and make proclamation that it is going on with them it can elect a majority to the next house and the next president
